

No, I don't want to be called by radio or TV stations or anyone else asking for money. The only exception is for legitimate polling.

I am very unhappy about the exemptions for newspapers (The Arizona Republic hounded me for years until I told them I would file suit if they didn't stop. So far they haven't called back.)

I am also very unhappy about all the other exemptions. I frequently get calls by so-called charities collecting for police organizations, Special Olympics, etc.

Just yesterday, October 28, 2003, I received a call from Credit Shelter of America, phone number 866-362-4800. They agreed to remove my numbers, but there will be others.

Next fight is spam. About 70% of all my incoming e-mail is spam. Please do something about this as well.
